What's Behind Liberty Bonds?

When a man asks you to lend him money you ask "what security can you give?"

"Well," he replies "I need $1,000, and I have a farm worth $3,000, I will give you a mortgage."

You lend him the money and feel pretty safe, although you know that a thousand things may happen that will prevent the prompt payment of interest, or make impossible the repayment of the loan. And you know that something may cause the farm to depreciate, though you do not expect any such result.

Now the United States Government comes to you and says: "A man in Europe has opened war on us and intends if he possibly can to get the upper hand of us and make us pay a prodigious amount of money as a price of peace. If the Kaiser likes us he may compel us to pay him $50,000,000,000 for immunity from further aggression. What we need is Thirty Dollars a head from all American citizens to fight the Kaiser and make it impossible to mulet us. But you need not give the money. Merely lend the Government your loose funds. You will receive a Liberty Loan Bond, backed by the absolute promise of the United States to repay the money with 4 1/2 per cent interest. And the money you lend will be exempt from most taxes while the government is using it."

Security? Why, the security is absolute. One year's produce in this country is greater six times over than the entire amount of money the Government owes on all its bonds. The property value behind the Liberty Loan Bonds is not less than $250,000,000,000. Add to that the money value of the lives of the producing population of America—figuring on the lowest basis—and you make a total security too big for the human mind to grasp. Moral: Invest in all the Liberty Bonds you can.

Social Evenings Spent

The N. Y. B. members held a farewell reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Parmlee, on Kennedick St., Tuesday evening, April 23. A pot-luck supper was served and the evening was spent at "500." A very enjoyable time was had by all present.

Mr. and Mrs. Parmlee have been members of this club ever since its organization and it is with regret that their associates learn of their moving away. The best of good wishes were expressed for their future happiness and prosperity in their new home.

All those connected with the play, "The Thread of Destiny," recently given, were given the freedom of the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. Roy Fuller Thursday evening last week, where they enjoyed to the utmost a delicious pot-luck supper, supplemented by sherbet furnished by Mrs. Fuller. Afterward a jolly, informal, social time was spent in games, music and dancing.

The Entre Nous club was entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Richards on Friday evening last week. A dainty and delicious lunch was served at the usual hour, after which Five Hundred was played, Mrs. Benj. Clyne and W. H. Learmont winning the favors.

Missionary Society.

The annual meeting of the missionary society of the Presbyterian church last Thursday afternoon was not very largely attended but was made interesting to those who were there by the goodly reports of the secretary and treasurer, and also by a talk from Mrs. Rheingans in regard to the convention recently held in Port Huron.

Election of officers resulted as follows:

President—Mrs. J. A. Menzies
Vice-Pres.—Mrs. Alex Pollock
Secretary—Mrs. Fred Taylor
Treasurer—Mrs. Ed Andrae
Sec. of Literature—Mrs. Jos Yull

OBITUARY

Died at the hospital in Almont, on Thursday, April 18th, 1918, Benjamin Briggs, of Speaker township, aged about forty-eight years.

Mr. Briggs had lived in Speaker since a young man, coming from Canada. He was well and favorably known throughout the county, always spoken of in the highest terms of esteem and living the life of a goodly man.

About fourteen years ago he married Miss Minnie Phillips, who with two children, Gordon and Esther, 11 and 7 years of age, mourn the loss of a loving husband and father.

Funeral services were held from the Melvin M. E. church, with its pastor officiating clergyman, on Monday, and the remains were laid to rest in the Melvin cemetery.

The body of Mrs. Mary Sanderson was brought to Yale from Port Huron on Monday evening and taken to the home of her daughter, Mrs. Vrooman where services were held on Tuesday at 1:00 o'clock p. m., Elder D. McCall preaching the sermon. Music was rendered by Mrs. Staley and Verna Hallman. Interment was made in Speaker cemetery.

Mrs. Sanderson was formerly a resident of Speaker township, but recently had lived with her daughter, Mrs. Geo. Balcock in Port Huron, where she died on Saturday, April 20th, at the age of 80 years.

We wish to express our gratitude to the friends and neighbors for their kindness and sympathy; to those who furnished the music, also to those who furnished automobiles.—The Family.

Mrs. Axatila, who died Thursday, April 18, 1918, mention of which was made in last week's Expositor, was born in Greece 71 years ago. Sept. 17, 1914, she came to this country and made her home with her son in this city. The funeral services were held from the home Monday afternoon this week, Rev. George Petridis, of Detroit, officiating. Interment in Elmwood cemetery. One son, Thomas J., of this city and a daughter, Mrs. Fannie Johnson, of Bay City, survive.

Mr. and Mrs. Etchells expect soon to move to Missouri, where they will make their future home.

Congratulations are offered by friends for a happy and prosperous wedded life.

Pere Marquette Train Restored.

It's true. The poor martyr has found its lost trains and restored them to the Saginaw division. We now have four passenger trains a day; one going east at 8:36 a. m., one going west at 9:40 a. m.; one going west at 5:20 p. m., one going east at 7:15, for all of which we give thanks and are duly grateful. Also we understand we are on a main line, at least the number of freight trains a day, and there is hardly any time without one, gives one the impression that the Pere Marquette is becoming an important road.

PASTURE TO LET—For the summer. Phone, Brown City, 124-11 is or inquire at the E. M. Kenney farm in Lynn township.

WANTED—Girl or woman for general housework in family of four; two adults and two children. $6.00 per week without washing, $7.00 with washing. Write Mrs. J. R. Worden, 519 Pennsylvania avenue, Detroit, Michigan.
